COLONIAL DAMES
TO KEEP RELICS
OF BY-GONE DAYSWeights and Measures in Revolution to Stay in Alexandria.THE HERALD BUREAU.
A. S. Doniphan,
727 King Street.

ALEXANDRIA, Va., Jan. 27.—The weights and measures used in Alexandria during the time of George Washington will be looked after by the Virginia Society of Colonial Dames. In Richmond yesterday a petition was presented for making an appropriation for the work by Mrs. William J. Morton of this city.

The weights and measures are in the possession of the city master and some time ago city council, at the request of the Alexandria Circle of Colonial Dames, obtained the custody of these relics of bygone days. They propose to place them in a glass case where they will be for the inspection of the public.

Members of the Alumnae of St. Mary's Academy of this city who reside in Washington, at a meeting held Monday night in Washington, decided to establish a branch of that organization in Washington. A committee of five was appointed to draft by-laws which will be submitted at a meeting which will be held February 14, at which time oficers will be chosen.

An address on the subject of forming an individual chapter of an alumnae was made by Miss Louise Darr, governor of the International Federation of Catholic Alumnae. Hereafter the police justice of this city will have to furnish a bond of $2,000 and have to make settlements every thirty days with the city treasurer. A resolution to this effect was adopted Tuesday night by city council. It became operative February 4. The auditor, it provides, shall be furnished with a copy of the report. The resolution further provides that the books of the office and all other records at police station are subject to the inspection and auditing by the finance committee of the city council.

A supper and cake sale was given tonight at the Lyceum Hall for the benefit of Dr. Anthony's Chapel, Raleigh Cross Roads, Fairfax County. The supper will be repeated tomorrow (Friday) night.

Spruce and Pine
Trees Ready for
Va. Distribution

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., Jan. 27.—Ten thousand white, short-leaf and loblolly pine and Norway spruce trees will be ready for distribution throughout Virginia within a few weeks by the State forest nursery at the University of Virginia. Prof. J. H. Sargent, State forester and head of the school of forestry at the university, makes the announcement.

The distribution will be by sale to private individuals and by gift to State forests, State highways and public schools, and is part of a plan initiated by the Federal government to conserve and build up timber lands.

The nursery maintained at the university was established three years ago, but this is the first year that trees have been of sufficient size to warrant distribution.

Seat Pleasant Names
Yearly Committees

SEAT PLEASANT, Md., Jan. 27.—Iris L. Main, newly-elected president of the Seat Pleasant Volunteer Fire and Community Welfare Association, has announced the appointment of these standing committees for the year: Robert C. Brown, membership—George McDuell, Alfred T. Morris, J. William Schultz; legislative—Louis F. Litz, N. J. Smith, William N. George; finance—John Coyne; entertainment—Andrew W. Schultz, R. L. White, George McDuell and A. S. Herbert; electric lights and public comfort—George B. Orton, George E. Redding, P. C. Baerlaggi and Walter Maloney.

The association is contributing 15 per cent of the cost road improvements not under the supervision of State or county. Efficient work of the local firemen resulted in the saving of two houses valued at least at $5,000 recently, it was reported by the chief. The association is planning additional electric lights for the town.

Snowfall in Danville
Heaviest in 5 Years

DANVILLE, Va., Jan. 27.—Between six and eight inches of snow fell last night accompanied by a high North gale. Snow drifts two and three feet deep are reported in exposed sections.

The fall is the heaviest for five years. Street cars were brought out at four o'clock in the morning pushing snow plows and opening traffic in time for normal schedules.

Shooting Men, 3 Years;
Stealing Sweater, 1 year

CUMBERLAND, Md., Jan. 27.—Judges Anderson and Wagonman fined Antonio Facel, John Bullic, Frank Silva, William L. Shannon, John Davis and Louis Sinaballa $150 and costs each for the illegal sale of liquor. Shannon was also fined $50 on a gambling charge.

James Thomas and Samuel E. Snyder, robbery, were paroled. Arch Zillman and Gordon Henderson, both colored, were given three years in the penitentiary for shooting Alvo Heckley when he demanded pay for a can of beans which the negro store had purchased at the Heckley store. John Edward Johnson, colored, was sentenced to one year in the house of correction for the larceny of a sweater.

YOUTH SHOOT'S HERMIT WHO
WOUNDED HIM FOR TRIFLEAged Man, With Bullet in Thigh, Jailed After Peppering Lad Who Escaped.

OAKLAND, Md., Jan. 27.—A peculiar shooting affair took place yesterday on Little Mountain, about three miles from Loch Lynn Heights, this county. A boy of about 17, named Uphole, went to the house of Jacob Kitzmiller, aged about 65, a hermit, who runs a small farm and borrowed a needle and thread to sew his gloves. The boy upon leaving the house, deposited the needle and thread on a fencepost in front.

This apparently enraged Kitzmiller, who fired at Uphole with a shotgun, peppering his chest and neck. Uphole was carrying a shotgun and returned the fire, the charge taking effect in Kitzmiller's thigh. The aged man had to be carried into the jail at Oakland. His condition is serious. Uphole has not been arrested.

MARYLAND COUPLE
FIND MISSING GIRL
IN RUBBER NATION

World Tourists From Hagerstown Reach Straits Settlements.

HAGERSTOWN, Md., Jan. 26.—After a lapse of a month news has come from Mr. and Mrs. Lyman H. Reamer, of Hagerstown, who are making a tour of the world, a letter having just been received from Mr. Reamer from Kuala Lumpur, in the Straits Settlements of the Far East. The letter was under date of December 10, 1920, and stated that Mr. Reamer and his wife were in good health.

They are in the heart of the rubber country, where wild animals abound and danger is ever present. Mr. Reamer stated that there had been a great slump in the price of rubber there, the commodity dropping from $1.15 to 35 cents a pound in Straits Settlements money, or the equivalent of from 46 cents to 15 cents in American money. He said the rubber producers are greatly discouraged over the situation.

Mr. and Mrs. Reamer sailed from San Francisco last summer for Japan, toured China, Siam, and now are in the Malay Peninsula. They go thence to India, Persia, Egypt and the Holy Land on their way home.

ROAD DIRECTORS
ARE APPOINTED

UPPER MARLBORO, Jan. 27.—The commissioners of Prince Georges County, sitting as road commissioners, have elected these road directors for the ensuing year: W. H. Owens, first district; Milton Erickson, second district; Frank Richardson, third district; Charles Duvall, fourth district; Howard Proctor, fifth district; and John Gallahan, sixth district. All the directors are Republicans, with the exception of Owens. Fred Waters, of Brandwine district, was appointed road clerk.

Two delegations appeared, one urging the improvement of the road from Surratts district to Piscataway and the other asking for the continuation of the road through Oxon Hill, known as the Livingston road.

Woman Turns Tables;
Marches Attacker to Jail

MORGANTOWN, W. Va., Jan. 27.—At the muzzle of a shotgun a pretty young woman who refused to give her name, yesterday marched Mike Kuza, a miner, two miles across the country and turned him over to a deputy sheriff after he had attempted to attack her in her home.

Breaking free from his grasp, the young woman grabbed a shotgun and commanded the man to throw up his hands and begin walking to town, where she turned him over to the police.

Wanted on Charge of Embezzling $2,500 and Faces
Civil Suit.

NORFOLK, Va., Jan. 27.—Anne M. Gibbs, 19-year-old cashier and stenographer wanted here on a charge of embezzling $2,500 from H. B. Butler and Company, by whom she was employed, and charged in a civil suit with the theft of more than $10,000 of the firm's money, was arrested in Maben, W. Va. The young woman will be brought here for trial.

According to reports, Harry A. Stephenson, a former roomer at the girl's home and who has been missing since the girl disappeared, is a native of Maben. A married sister of Anna Gibbs also lives near where the arrest was made.

Washingtonians Married
In Rockville Pastorage

ROCKVILLE, Jan. 27.—Miss Flossie B. Hayes, of Frederick, and Orval Martin, of Fort Worth, Texas, were married in Rockville yesterday afternoon by Rev. P. Rowland Wagner, pastor of the Baptist Church. Also were Miss Lillian C. Cannon and Clarence L. Fawley, both of Taylorstown, Va., and Miss Eunice V. Dorsett and Herman G. Lunsford, both of Washington, the home of the minister being the scene of all three ceremonies.

Among other couples married here yesterday were Miss Emily Goodman and Milton Joseph Capuch, both of Washington.

Shot by Her Husband,
Wife May Recover

HAGERSTOWN, Md., Jan. 27.—Mrs. Lucy Arena, the American wife of Santa Arena, an Italian, who was shot by her husband at their home in this city yesterday and was believed to be fatally wounded, has a chance to recover.

A new angle to the shooting was given by Mrs. Arena today when she stated that her husband shot her in a fit of temper because she refused to leave the place where she had been working. She said she felt no bitterness toward her husband, who is in jail pending the outcome of her injuries.

Theater Packed to Hear Galli-Curci Sing

CUMBERLAND, Md., Jan. 27.—What was regarded as the leading musical event in the history of Cumberland was the appearance at the Maryland Theater last night of Amelia Galli-Curci, the soprano. For the first time the entire house was sold out for a musical event. It was necessary to sell stage seats to accommodate the throng of music lovers. Galli-Curci was accompanied by her husband.

Polite Thief Left Note
Which Fooled No One

CUMBERLAND, Md., Jan. 27.—A note which said: "On a time heavy some money, I am on my way to Baltimore," was pinned on the ticket window at the Baltimore and Ohio Station at Urtina where a robbery occurred.

Instead of going to Baltimore detectives went to Petersburg, Va. where they arrested Emmett B. Blackwell, a negro.

SAY EPISCOPAL
CLERGYMAN BROKE
CANONICAL LAWAnnual Convention of Church May Probe
DuPont Nuptials.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 27.—Charged with violating an ecclesiastical law in performing the marriage ceremony for Alfred I. Dupont, multimillionaire powder magnate and a divorced man, and Miss Jessie D. Ball, the Rev. Baker P. Lee today faced possibility of a trial before a board in the Episcopal Church.

Foundation for the action against the rector was laid at a session here of the annual convention of the diocese of Los Angeles. A resolution was adopted assuring Bishop Johnson the support of the body if he should see fit to exercise his authority by calling Lee to answer for violation of the Canon, which forbids a marriage ceremony by an Episcopal clergyman when one of the parties has been divorced and has a former spouse living. It is believed certain that Bishop Johnson will call Lee formally to answer.

The Rev. Baker P. Lee today declared he was fully justified in performing the marriage last Saturday of Alfred I. Dupont, multimillionaire powder magnate, and Miss Jessie D. Ball, of Los Angeles, and announced his intention of fighting any charges upon which he may be tried by twelve of his peers in the Episcopal Church.

The marriage is alleged to have been performed by him in violation of an ecclesiastical canon of the Protestant Episcopal Church. The Rev. Lee declared he had reason to believe that the charges were being pressed by a "little clique that has been attempting to oust me for years."

If the charges are pressed and he is brought to trial, the clergyman declared, he would prove that he acted in accordance with instructions from Bishop Johnson, of the Los Angeles Diocese, in other cases.

Dr. Lee admitted today that he knew Dupont had been divorced. "But I have a sworn statement to prove that he was divorced from his first wife on the only grounds recognized by the church," said Lee.

Say Girl Married
2 Within Eleven
Days; 1 D. C. Man

CUMBERLAND, Md., Jan. 27.—Hilda Neasmith, of Near Johnstown, Pa., was married to J. L. Jessup, of Washington, D. C., December 16, last, and to Edgar Beall, of this city, 11 days later, the admission following her arrest for larceny and false pretense. The alleged crimes were committed while she was employed at the Kiskiminetas Spring School, Salisbury, Pa. It is said prosecution will be dropped.

The woman is believed to have returned to the home of her step-parents, near Johnstown, Pa. Beall will seek to have his marriage annulled. The girl was wedded to Jessup at Salisbury. They lived together but a few days. While employed here she met Beall and he followed her to Salisbury. After proposing marriage he brought her to the home of his parents here.

HART SCHAFFNER & MARX CLOTHES

Gets One Cent Damages.

FREDERICKSBURG, Va., Jan. 27.—Verdict of 1 cent damages in favor of the plaintiff, Norman Brown, was returned by the jury in the Corporation Court here trying the case of Norman Brown vs. W. E. Brooks. The suit grew out of the alleged false arrest of Brown on election day last November and was for $5,000 damages. The verdict of one cent does not determine, under law, who shall pay the costs of the case. The cost will be assigned at the discretion of the court.
